EAST KINGSTON, Feb. 15, 1905.

Annual School Report.

We hereby submit the following annual report: Our schools for the past year show evidence of having been cared for exceedingly well. Each teacher has tried to do her best and as a general thing the pupils have been equally ambitious. The result has been highly satisfactory.

Miss Chase and Miss Lawrence have been in their schools for the year and have maintained the well earned reputation acquired in past years.

The Spring and Fall terms at the Corner were taught by Miss Sanborn no less faithfully than for several years past. She resigned at the close of the Fall term. The position has been acceptably filled by Mrs. Philbrick for the Winter term.

Miss Holmes, the teacher at the North, resigned on account of sickness and was succeeded by Miss French, who gave good satisfaction. Miss Clark taught the Fall and Winter terms. We think her school was well governed and well instructed. This is the smallest school in town, only averaging five for the year.

Several of the older scholars left the Pound school to attend the school at the Brown Academy, making the per cent. of attendance smaller than usual. Everyone should be interested in this higher grade of school work. We think this is a matter of much importance and we hope all that are qualified will avail themselves of this great privilege at the commencement of the Spring term.

An evil for which no permanent remedy has yet been found is the habit, or shall we say carelessness, many parents have of allowing their children to remain at home, many times upon the most trivial matters. These habits beget idleness and indifference on the part of the child. We believe no excuse should be accepted excepting in case of sickness. The school hours belong to the children and they should not be deprived of them. This only applies to the guilty.

We wish to give credit to the teachers and children for their excellent care of the school rooms; only a small outlay has ever been required for repairs.

We desire to suggest to the citizens to give the teachers of the district their earnest co-operation in the school work. See that your children get the full benefit of the instruction given by being regular at school; consult with the teachers in the work of your children in school and visit them oftener. Such timely interest will be of benefit to teachers and pupils.

ROLL OF HONOR.

Names of pupils not absent or tardy for the year:—Edith S. Buswell, Lewis B. Tilton and Fred B. Rowell.

For two terms:—Marion L. Rowell, Geneva A. Miles, Philip N. Tilton, Charles A. Currier, William C. Currier, Albert C. Tilton, Irving H. Smith and George E. Evans.

For one term:—Sara M. Denoncour, Abbie M. Denoncour, Margaret S. Currier, Madeline E. Robinson, Elsie I. Buswell, Lillian M. Kimball, Bertha M. Kimball, Lillian B. Robbins, Oscar Bowley, Irving W. Somers, Frank E. Holmes, Ralph H. Buswell, Walter H. Brown, George E. Kimball, Charles D. Evans and Joseph H. Robbins.

Respectfully,

JOSEPH F. CURRIER,	} School Board.
